

The Brazos Genealogical Advertiser BGA

Bryan-College Station, Texas

Volume 1, Number 1

June-July 1979

AN OPEN LETTER TO BRAZOS GENEALOGICAL ASSOCIATION MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

On January 23, 1978, a small group of interested genealogists met in the Bryan Library to discuss the formation of an association. In a year and a half, our Brazos Genealogical Association has gained the first objectives—increased membership, informative and varied programs, contributions to the genealogical section of the library and renewed interest in local and family news.

Now we are entering a new and ambitious undertaking. This is Volume I, Number 1, of the BRAZOS GENEALOGICAL ADVERTISER. How presumptuous! Yet each effort must have a beginning and a good positive, 'forward-hoping' beginning can only strengthen our chances of success.

What can you expect of this new visitor into your home? Let us know WHAT you want—what YOU expect. We have given you a preview of the proposed contents in the flyer mailed in June. As we work the plan, other ideas may occur, take precedence or supplant the sections we start with. That will be a good healthy sign of growth! The same is true of the name, mast-head, and present publication proposals—but here we start.

We are small in number to begin this undertaking. We must make up for it in quality and hard work. What can YOU do to help??—lick stamps—write an article?—check on membership activities?—help with some research?—allow us to publish a 'treasure' you have found?—share a research technique?—describe a library you have visited or new source you have found?—tell about a genealogical or historical experience you have had?—index?—use your writing skills to edit or write contributions?—send in queries or questions?

We must work together.

Please help.

RESEARCH SOURCES

Do you need a list of people of a given surname in a particular city to whom you want to send letters of inquiry? Write the Chamber of Commerce—they'll send you the list from the city directory. They (or the city library) may also have old City directories available for search. It only takes the price of the stamp and the SASE (Self-Addressed, Stamped Envelope) to find out!

(Courtesy of Ralph and Naomi McCormick)

Another source for that list of names in a specific area is the telephone book. The reference librarian in the A&M University Library has these telephone books from all over the nation on microfiche. The appropriate book will give you names, addresses, and telephone numbers—in case you can't wait on a letter!

FEATURE ARTICLES

This section will feature a variety of articles as well as items of information relating to this area of Texas. This issue will give you a couple of cemetery listings for Brazos County. These two cemeteries are small and need to be recorded.

The South cemetery is probably a familiar one to many of you. It is located in Bryan at the junction of Garden Acres, Tanglewood, and Inwood. The city has reserved this large area as a park. Kite flying, baseball, and model airplanes are often observed and everyone respects the small fenced area that is the South Cemetery. Just inside the cyclone fence is a circle of petrified wood which makes it appear to have more stones than are actually there. The land surround the little cemetery was once the South farm. Several old cedars stand sentinel and shade the plot from the sun. They seem to be protecting still the family resting there.

Below are listed the markers that are in this tiny family cemetery:

BESTER SOUTH

Pvt Co 1, 21 Regt Texas Cavalry

Oct 27 1904

This marker is a metal one provided by the government. It is placed at the foot of the grave, and at the head is an upright marble marker with the same information.

The adjacent space has a marble base similar to the base of the other, but there is no marker, and none was found elsewhere in the plot.

Maggie SOUTH

Johnnie SOUTH

This is a flat marble marker with information for both children.

This marker is another upright marker that must have been broken. It has been repaired as indicated.

There is a message on Charles W.'s marker:

SPECIAL EVENTS: LOCAL

The JUNE meeting, which was a trip to the Austin area for a day's research, did not serve the number of members that we had hoped for. The group who went had a great time, but it was much smaller than expected.

The JULY meeting will be at the regular time and place: Bryan Library, July 16, 7:00 p.m. Ruth HULL will share some highlights from a very interesting journal which was kept by her grandfather, Rev. W. S. SOUTH, a Methodist Circuit Rider. She is identifying the people and places he has referred to in the Journal and he did visit and preach all through this area. Wait 'til you hear about the twenty-five marriages all in one day!

The AUGUST meeting is planned for our regular Monday night, August 20. We will tour the new A&M University Library to see if we can find again the materials that will be helpful. More specific information will be sent just prior to the meeting.

SMITH, Mary b. November 16, 1855, d. February 2, 1897, 46 years, 2 months, 26 days.

These are additional listings that were given in Mr. Smith's book, Pioneers of Brazos County, Texas, 1800-1850. Mr. Smith listed this as the Old Millican Cemetery but Shirley says it really is the Weaver Cemetery. There is a cemetery called Old Millican Cemetery as well.

DUNLAP, Marcello J. . . . b. September 14, 1859, d. March 21, 1861.

MILLICAN, Lucy Lee b. April 27, 1862, d. Ausut 8, 1866.

MILLICAN, John b. November 8, 1837, d. August 29, 1872.

MILLICAN, Adaline B. b December 11, 1868, d. July 21, 1869.

MILLICAN, Mary Josephine b. October 14, 1858, d. August 14, 1865.

MILLICAN, Sam Houston b. August 1, 1868, d August 5, 1874.

The Weaver Cemetery at Millican was recorded by Shirley REDMAN who lives in the vicinity. When she made her list two years ago, there were seventeen stones; now, she says there are only three. When W. Broaddus SMITH listed this cemetery in his book, Pioneers of Brazos County, Texas, 1800-1850, there were twenty-seven. This is solid proof that we need to be listing these small cemeteries before they are lost to us entirely. If you know of one, please list it and send it for publication, or report it—maybe we can find someone who can list it.

RESEARCH SOURCES

The Texas A&M University Library is an excellent source for genealogical research; and, because it is so accessible, this section will bring information about what is available and where it is located in the Library.

This information is furnished by Mike Kerstetter, an A&M student who (like most of us) is an active amateur genealogist. These are indexes or general resource areas. Z books are on the third floor.

Z, 5313, U5 AMERICAN GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX.

Z, 6951, B86 HISTORY & BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS, 1690-1820. Vols. 1 and 2.

Z, 1237/
Z, 1351 Bibliographies to: War Records, Local and County histories in Library of Congress, County and State Histories. Also various state imprints.

The fifth floor has sections E and F. Both of these are good sources of material. E section has biographical material and includes:

E, 202.5 DAR Lineage Book Indexes.
A15

E, 255 DAR Patriot Index
D3.6

F section still on that fifth floor, is devoted to histories and includes county histories. These are arranged by states.

The second floor is another area you may want to explore. The microfilm and readers are on this floor as well as the map room and the office for Inter-Library Loan. This is a very small preview of what you may find in the Library and we'll try to share some more as we get more familiar with the new arrangement.
