Volume IV Number 2 Bryan-College Station
September-October 1982 Texas

POT POURRI

In preparation for the Texas Sesquicentennial Celebration, our Brazos Genealogical Association has voted to adopt as its project the complete listing of the Brazos County Cemeteries. This has already been a concern of the Advertiser, and the Sesquicentennial Project has given the added impetus. Other heritage organizations that have indicated an interest in supporting this project are:

LaVillita Chapter of the D. A. R.
William Scott Chapter of the D.A.R.
The Governors Chapter of the Daughters of American Colonists
Stephen Williams Chapter of the United States Daughters of 1812

Since the weather has moderated, we do have more people out there working at the cemetery listings. Mary BELL, Nina NOBLES, Anna HALLARAN, Ralph and Naomi McCORMICK have been working recently. Sandy and Kathy KARNES have also listed a cemetery. How about some other 'listers' to get into the act?

BRYAN CITY CEMETERY RECORDS

Recently the first record books of the Bryan City Cemetery were given to the Bryan Library. Microfilm records were made of them and they are destined for placement in the Texas A&M University Archives. However, Reference Librarian, Nan ROSS, expressed concern that the microfilm was not very readable, and a good record was still not available. Mary COOPER, Editor of the Advertiser, offered to make a typed copy of these early records. There may be names listed in these records that are not recorded on the stones that our cemetery surveyors will be listing. On the following pages the first book is recorded as nearly as possible just as it appears in that thin old volume. The second book--also in this first volume--will be published in the next issue of the Advertiser. In the issues of 1983, the next books of the Bryan City Cemetery will be published. After the copy is made the volumes may be found in the Texas A&M Archives. Remember that human error is always to be expected; there is nothing to take the place of a return to the original documents!

The books will be placed in the Texas A&M Library as a part of the regional archives project.

Genealogy Books Added to the Bryan Public Library Collection as of 16 September 1982. Short review is by Reference Librarian, Nan ROSS.

GNL 325 BAIRD. Hugenot Immigration To America. Traces the immigrations of Hugenots to America 1555-1700. Sources include unpublished French documents, manuscripts, memorials, public documents, church records, and many other sources--Read the Preface; Indexed.

GNL 325 Dictionary of Scottish Emigrants to U.S.A. Compiled from many sources--see the bibliography. Be sure and read the introduction! Alphabetical by last name, then first. Index of Persons lists those who bear a different surname from the entry under which they are found. Great!

GNL 929.1 BREMER. Sources and Repositories. A listing of little used but valuable sources.

GNL 929,1 BROWN. Good Record Keeping Is Easy and Fun. One of the easiest ways to organize your genealogical materials that I have come across.

GNL 929.1 Do Your Letters Beg For Attention or Do They Command It? Shows sample letters for many situations.

GNL 929,1 Genealogical Materials Available in the Genealogy Collection of the Mary E. BIVINS Memorial Library Amarillo, Texas. This is only those titles held before July 1967. All of their books are shelved as part of the Reference Collection!

GNL 929.1 GOREE. Thomas Jewett GOREE Letters Volume 1: Civil War Correspondence. A marvelous look at the life of a Confederate soldier. Indexed.

GNL 929.1 Handbook for Genealogical Correspondence. Covers the essentials of a genealogical letter, geography and genealogical correspondence, writing to relatives, writing to libraries and public archives and writing to churches and public officials. I especially appreciate the section on writing to librarians and know others will also--so many of the letters I get are so very incoherent! The tables in the back are invaluable. Indexed.

GNL 929.1 OATES. Art of Collecting Genealogy and History. A chatty but informative look at genealogy. I would not suggest a beginner starting off with this as their first introduction but later on--great!

GNL 929.1 Omitted Chapters from HOTTEN'S. Designed to correct HOTTEN's oversight and make the complete Barbados Census of 1679/80 accessible. Indexed.

GNL 929.1 Your Research Dollar . . . Is It Doing the Most for You? A good, basic introduction.

GNL 929.2 STRIBLING. The Qualities of Helen. The events in the life of Helen Corinne EASTERS shed light on the customs, background and pattern of life in the Bryan area. Indexed.

GNL 942 BURKE. Key to the Ancient Parish Registers of England and Wales. For those parishes having registers of an earlier date than 1813, gives: Parish, county and date of earliest entry. For goodness sake read the Introduction!

*GNL 971 Canadian Passports 1681-1752. Read the 'Introduction': Written in French. Indexed.

GNL 973.2 BOLTON. Portraits of the Founders. Persons who came to America before 1701. The 'Introduction' is fascinating. Three volumes in two. Indexed--each volume also has a separate contents listing.

GNL 973.3 CLARK. Loyalists in the Southern Campaign of the Revolutionary War. Volumes 2 & 3. More on an invaluable area of research--one much neglected. Indexed.

GNL 974.2 HOLBROOK. New Hampshire 1732 Census. The first state census. Documents each entry as to original source. Read the 'introduction' and rest of pp. 1-20 for valuable information. Arranged alphabetically by last name, then first.

GNL 974.2 HOLBROOK. New Hampshire Residents 1633-1699. Read the pages i thru xxv! Alphabetical arrangement. Pages 1-133 general residents, pages 134-205 by town/community. Bibliography pages 206-209.

GNL 974.4 BANKS. Planters of the Commonwealth. Author studied same lists as published by DRAKE, SAVAGE and HOTTEN and presents them as an integrated whole rather than exactly as found as did his predecessors. Read the 'Preface'. Indexes of names and places.

GNL 974.4 HILLS. History and Genealogy of the Mayflower Planters. This is two books in one, with two separate indexes. Be careful!

GNL 974.4 POPE. Pioneers of Massachusetts. Considers only Mass. as it stands today, its first settlers and their children. All names which have been found in journals and lists of the colonies, towns, churches and counties, 1620-1650, and passenger lists which have survived to today.

*GNL 974.7 New York Magazine. Marriages and Deaths: 1790-1797. Lists marriages, deaths, and subscribers. Alphabetical by last name.

GNL 974.7 Tree Talks, December 1981. Rensselaer County (New York) Federal Census transcript 1800. Carol MAXSON gave us a subscription to this informative journal and I have taken the liberty of pulling this, and other special issues, out and having them cataloged. Indexed by last and first names.

GNL 974.9 Marriages of Monmouth County, New Jersey, 1795-1843. Compiled from the original registers at the courthouse. Alphabetical by groom. Indexed.

GNL 975.5 CRUMRINE. Virginia Court Records in Southwestern Pennsylvania. The 1776 division of the District of West Augusta, Virginia, created the counties of Ohio, Yohogania and Monongalia--now in Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Taken from the original minute books of West Augusta, and photostats of records of the old court of Ohio County and originally published in the first three volumes of the Annals of the Carnegie Museum. Indexed.

GNL 975.5 United States Colored Troops from Lower Tidewater in the Civil War. Great--many came to Texas! Indexed by surname and first initial.

GNL 975.8 HOWELL. Cemeteries and Obituaries of Houston County, Georgia. Good thorough work. Indexed by last name, then first.

GNL 975.8 WARREN. Family Puzzlers 1964-1967. Compiled from the columns, this is just chock full of helpful hints. Thoroughly indexed. If you can't find it when you come in--check at the Reference desk.

*GNL 976.3 Acadian Church Records, 1679-1757. Baptismal, marriage, and funeral records from Beaubassin, Riviere St. Jean, Mines, Missions in New Brunswick, and the parish churches of Ste. Famille de Pabck, Baie des Chaleurs, Grande Riviere, and other places in Acadia and the Gaspe Peninsula. Indexed.

*GNL 976.4 1860 Census of Hunt County, Texas. Includes mortality census. Indexed by last name.

GNL 976.4 1880 Census of Rockwall County Texas, With Notes. Read the 'Foreward'. Indexed by last name.

GNL 976.4 Early Records of Hunt County, Texas. 1850: census, mortality schedule, slave census. Marriages 1847-1851. Indexed by last name.

*GNL 976.4 ERICSON. Banks and Bankers In Early Texas, 1835-1875. Includes: banking before 1876 in Texas, details of Texas banks (founding, location, founders etc.) and Texas bankers. Indexed.

GNL 976.4 GEUE. A New Land Beckoned. German Immigration to Texas, 1844-1847 from original documents. A reprint of a classic.
